

Portage County Junior Fair Market Livestock Sale Exhibitor Scholarship

This Scholarship was created through the donations of animals for resale/flooring at the Portage County Randolph Fair's Market Livestock auctions. The Sale Committee has formed a scholarship fund to benefit market animal exhibitors. High School Seniors and recent High School Graduates can apply to receive this scholarship only four (4) times beginning with the Class of 2000. The amount of the scholarship will depend on the amount of dollars from previous year's sale scholarship designated funds, contributions, and the number of applicants.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. Applicants MUST have participated in the Junior Fair Market Livestock Auction at the Portage County Randolph Fair.
2. The application and attachments MUST be received at the Portage County Randolph Fair Office by June 15th.
3. Applicants MUST have at least a 2.25 accumulative GPA or above to receive the Scholarship and be enrolled/accepted at an accredited college or technical school.

Once awarded the scholarship: YOU MUST present a copy of a receipt/statement of account (bill) as proof of enrollment from the accredited college or technical school. No money will be distributed until proof is submitted to the Sale Committee Treasurer. NO checks will be issued before September 28th. All receipts MUST be turned in for reimbursement by December 31st of the year in which the scholarship was granted.
