MARKET LAMB RULES

SPRING WEIGH-IN

1. TARDINESS at SPRING WEIGH-IN: Lambs MUST be present by the end of the designated time block. If unforeseen circumstances arise, you MUST notify a committee member on the fairgrounds of the problem, before the end of the designated time. If no call and the lamb is late, the lamb will not be tagged or weighed.
2. All Jr. Fair market lambs MUST have the required Scrapie Identification Tag (by the mandatory spring weigh-in/tagging) in order to participate in the Portage County Randolph Jr. Fair. Absolutely no exceptions. DO NOT bring a lamb to spring weigh-in without a Scrapie tag.
3. Lambs will be tagged at weigh-in with tamper-proof ear tags. No substitutions will be permitted. A $5.00 fee will be charged for each lamb tagged. The $5.00 fee is due by June 1.
4. Lost ear tags must be promptly reported to an adult 4-H/Jr. Fair Sheep Committee member as soon as possible so a replacement can be inserted.
5. Number of lambs permitted to weigh-in: Each exhibitor is permitted to weigh-in four lambs including the family spare at the mandatory spring weigh-in.
6. Each exhibitor may show:
 - a. One lamb for first year exhibitor
 - b. Two lambs for second year exhibitor or over
 - c. One lamb if chosen as secondary project
7. All lambs MUST be assigned to a Jr. Fair sheep project exhibitor at spring weigh-in. One lamb may be designated as a family spare. Definition of family spare- an extra lamb available to any member of the family, after each member has tagged at least one lamb in their name.
8. Lambs MUST be under the daily care of the Jr. Fair exhibitor; however, it is not necessary to keep the lamb at the owner's premise.
9. Lambs must be kept in the county of the exhibitor's residence. Lambs can be kept at a premise other than the exhibitor's, at the discretion of the Sheep Committee. Lambs may not be housed by a breeder, unless it is the exhibitor's home. Out of county exhibitors must keep their lambs at their own residence. A sheep Project Housing Form must be submitted to the Sheep Committee by the April meeting of the current year.

10. Lambs with contagious diseases (ex: sore mouth, foot rot) Must be weighed and tagged last. Owners must notify the committee before the lambs are unloaded.
11. Lambs must be castrated or banded by Spring Weigh-In.

TROPHY SPONSORS

1. Mandatory trophy sponsors and money will be due to the treasurer of the Sheep Committee by June 1. Amount will be set annually by the committee. Violations will be handled at the discretion of the committee.
2. ALL Jr. Fair sheep exhibitors MUST present a written thank-you addressed to the Jr. Fair sheep program sponsor who donated the trophy they received during the Jr. Fair sheep show by the Sunday ending fair. Thank-you notes MUST be presented to a sheep committee member (preferably the committee secretary or treasurer) in order to be recognized as received. Any Jr. Fair sheep exhibitor who does not present a trophy sponsor thank-you according to these guidelines will have their sales check withheld until the committee receives a trophy sponsor thank-you.

FINAL WEIGH-IN

1. All lambs must be brought to the fair and carcass contest clean. Dirty lambs will be sent home at the discretion of the sheep committee.
2. TARDINESS AT FINAL WEIGH-IN: Lambs MUST be in place and weighed by the end of the designated time period. If unforeseen circumstances arise, you MUST notify a committee member, at the event, of the problem before the end of the designated time period. If no call and the lamb is not in place by end of the designated time period, the lamb will be sent home.
3. It is the exhibitor's or their designee's responsibility to weigh their lamb once on the fairgrounds. If the lamb is not weighed by the end of the weigh-in period and there was no notification to an adult Sheep Committee member, the consequences are: The lamb must be removed from the Fairgrounds by 10:00pm Monday night.
4. DUNF must be submitted electronically before Weigh-In.
5. All Jr. Fair market lambs MUST have the required Scrapie Identification Tag at Final Weigh-In in order to participate in the Portage County Randolph Jr. Fair or Carcass Contest. Absolutely no exceptions. Do NOT bring a lamb to final weigh-in without a Scrapie tag.
6. Lambs arriving at scale without Scrapie and Portage County tags are disqualified and will be sent home Monday night.
7. RE-WEIGH PROCEDURE AT FAIR WEIGH-IN: Only the person taking the lamb over the scale can ask for a weigh-back and MUST do so before the lamb returns to its pen. The person taking the lamb across the scale will be given an index card with the weight on it and asked if they agree or disagree with the weight shown on the card. If the weight presented on the card is accepted (a YES answer), the weight stands, and the lamb can return to the pen. If the weight presented on the card is not accepted (a NO answer), the lamb returns to the scale and is re-weighed immediately. The second weight stands as the final weight.
8. There will be a minimum 30% weight gain from spring weigh-in to final weigh-in for all market lambs entering the carcass contest or exhibiting at the fair. The consequences for each lamb not meeting the minimum weight gain are:
 - a. The lamb is disqualified from the Carcass Contest.
 - b. The lamb is disqualified from the Market Show and Project Champion Contest.
 - c. The lamb can be shown in Showmanship.
 - d. The lamb will be pen evaluated by the judge to determine feeder status.
 - e. The lamb will sell at the end of the sale order, but will not be marked differently in the program.
 - f. Exhibitor may choose to go home after weigh-in MONDAY NIGHT. If the exhibitor chooses to take the lamb home, it must be removed from the fairgrounds by 10:00p.m. Monday night
 - g. Sheep Committee has the ability to send an animal home if deemed unsuitable for exhibit(11/2022).
9. Market lambs may be wethers or ewe lambs. Improperly castrated wethers will be disqualified and handled under ODA guidelines
10. Exhibitor must provide food and water to protect the health and welfare of the animal.

MARKET LAMB SHOW

1. Market Lamb classes will be set as soon as possible, following fair weigh-in, by the representatives of the Sheep Committee. Classes will be based on weight and will be as uniform as possible.
2. Market lambs may not show in breeding classes.
3. Lambs must be slick shorn to the top of the knee and the point of the hock within 10 days of show day. Once on the fairgrounds, slick or finish shearing MUST be done by the member, his/her parent or sibling, another Portage County Jr. Fair Sheep Project exhibitor, advisor or Sheep Committee Member.
4. No electrical devices (example; hot shot or cattle prod) will be used on any Jr. Fair sheep project. (Fair Board Policy Development Committee, May 2004)
5. The use of ice, ice packs, cold packs, cold compresses, internally or externally is prohibited.
6. All market lambs MUST stay in the immediate designated vicinity of the lamb barn and show arena from 12:00am show day until the end of the show. The area will also be posted in the sheep barn. Penalty for breaking the rule will be disqualification from the market lamb show with the lamb selling last in the sale.
7. Procedure for selecting the Top Five Overall Market Lambs: All of the respective class first place lambs enter the ring. All second place lambs are on stand-by. The judge selects the overall Grand Champion Lamb from the first place lambs. Once the overall Grand Champion Lamb is selected, the second place lamb from that class enters the ring for evaluation for overall Reserve Champion. This process continues until the Top Five Overall Lambs are placed.

SHEEP SHOWMANSHIP

1. Exhibitor MUST show their own animal in showmanship unless otherwise approved by the Sheep Committee, prior to the sheep show.
2. If an exhibitor is not eligible to bring their lamb to the fair for any reason they cannot show in showmanship.
3. Showmanship classes are divided by age, as of January 1 of the current year. Classes will be as even as possible with ideally no more than ten participants in each class. Classes are set by the Sheep Committee.
4. Novice: For first year lamb exhibitors of any age. This class is intended to be a learning experience for the novice exhibitor. Novice exhibitors will also compete in their own age groups for placings.
5. Showmanship class winners will move up by one age division allowing participants to win each age division only once. If a single participant is in a class, they will stay in their age appropriate class the following year.
6. Champion of Champions: Champion of Champions class will consist of all first place class winners of the current year and the two previous year's Champion of Champions Showman. After winning the Champion of Champions title, the showman will remain in the Champion of Champions class, and not complete in their age group for the next two years, unless they win the title again.

PORTAGE COUNTY BORN AND RAISED CLASS

1. Exhibitor MUST be enrolled in a sheep breeding project by the required 4-H or FFA deadline.
2. Exhibitors MUST bring a breeding animal to the fair or make a poster project to display at the fair. The breeding sheep poster project MUST be presented by Monday at 10:00pm.
